Local rockers Trucker Diablo recently released their excellent new album "Fighting for Everything" after a successful Pledge Music campaign (<http://www.rockradioni.co.uk/back-stage/music-reviews/3211-ni-rocks-recommends-qfighting-for-everythingg-by-trucker-diablo.html>).

I'd posted a e-mail interview with lead singer Tom Harte back in April 2013 and he'd also been a guest on the show in March 2015 following the release of "Rise Above The Noise". So rather than do another full interview I decided to get Tom onto the Show for a quick chat and to focus on telling us something about a few of the tracks on the new album. You can hear that conversation and five tracks from "Fighting For Everything" on the Friday NI Rocks Show on 29th September – available now via our MixCloud page.

The poster features a black and white photograph of the four band members of Trucker Diablo. They are dressed in a rugged, rockabilly style with plaid shirts, leather jackets, and caps. One member is holding a beer. The background is dark with some faint, illegible text. In the bottom right corner, there is a small inset photo of the special guest band, Gasoline Outlaws, standing together.
